

Automated Compounding Devices

Automated compounding devices continue to maintain their popularity in larger facilities and are well rated by users, with 78% rating their devices “good” or “excellent.”

3rd Place in User Satisfaction

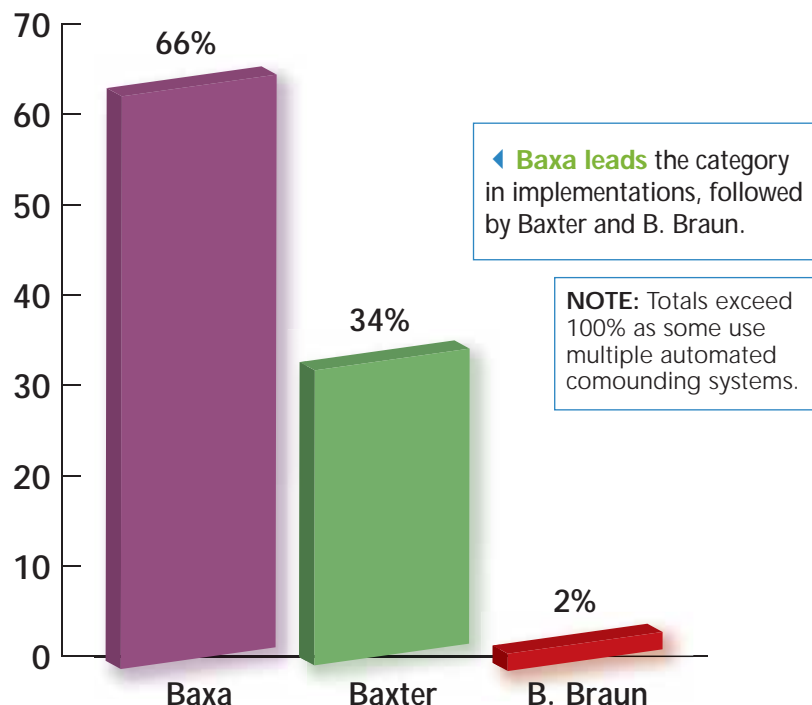

For more information on automated compounding devices, circle reader service number 901, or visit www.findit.pppmag.com

Devices in Use

▲ Facilities using automated compounding devices remained flat this year at 39%.

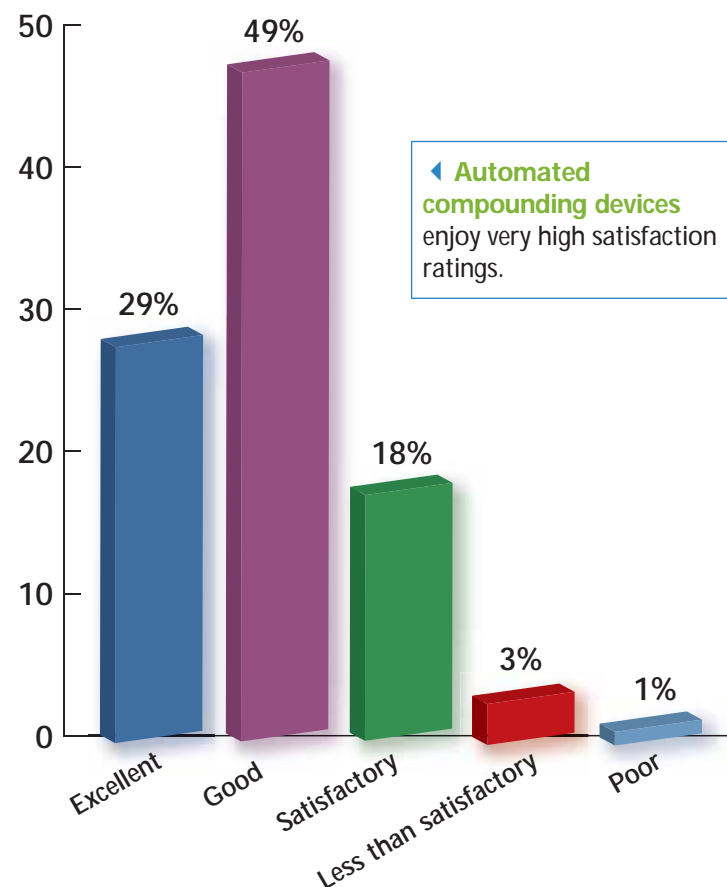

Vendor Systems in Use

◀ Baxa leads the category in implementations, followed by Baxter and B. Braun.

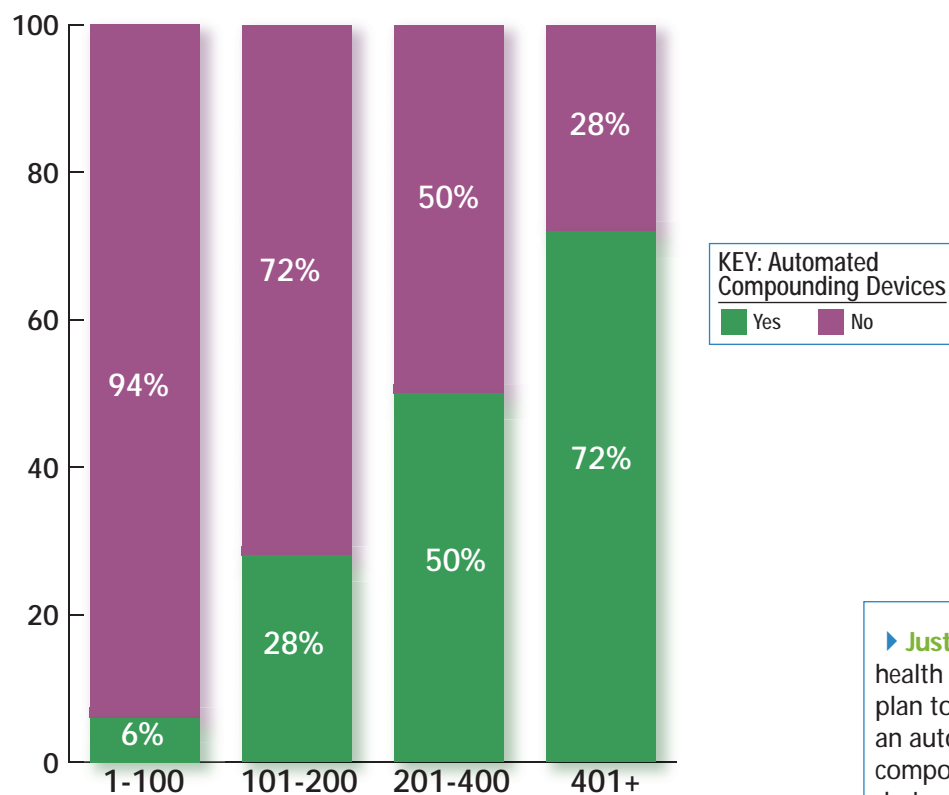

NOTE: Totals exceed 100% as some use multiple automated compounding systems.

User Satisfaction

◀ Automated compounding devices enjoy very high satisfaction ratings.

Devices in Use by Facility Size (in number of beds)

KEY: Automated Compounding Devices
■ Yes ■ No

▲ Not surprisingly, automated compounding device implementations are more common in larger facilities.

▶ Just 11% of health systems plan to implement an automated compounding device in the near future.

Projected Implementations

