

Meeting Your Information Needs

Whether you are researching waste management providers, searching for a new outsourced compounding provider, or looking for a consultant to provide guidance on meeting <797> regulations, PP&P's 2010 Resource Guide provides effortless access to the companies providing services, supplies, and equipment to hospital pharmacy.

The attached reader service card simplifies the process of contacting the vendors you are interested in. Simply circle the product categories for the products and services of interest to you, mail or fax the card to us, and you will hear from the vendors in short order.

You also can conduct searches online at www.findit.pppmag.com. All of the comprehensive content in the Resource Guide is available electronically with direct access to the vendors' websites.

Thank you for looking to PP&P for information on the many resources available to hospital pharmacy. As always, we look forward to supporting your information needs throughout the year.

All the best,
